

AN EXPERIENTIAL IMAGERY EXERCISE

You may color it and write inside the pathway some of the areas you would like to explore—actual destinations such as cities or countries, or individual goals for spiritual, mental, and physical development.

PRINCIPLE

God is the author of our stories. Always remember to come home to Him.

Write your story, based upon the principles you have learned and the revelations and discoveries you have made while reading this book. Let your heart speak! It has a voice that wants to be heard. Even if you write only a few sentences or paragraphs, take the time to do so. This is just the beginning of greater depth and freedom in your life.
